

New Executive Chef- Chris Goulding

Respected Chef Chris Goulding will join Kooyong to take up the position of Executive Chef.

Chris cut his teeth as an apprentice at the famed Marchetti's Latin and went on to work at Italy 1 and Lynch's before partnering in his own restaurant, Meli Melo. In recent times he has headed up the team at the highly regarded O'Connell's Hotel.

Chris has a reputation for good food and meeting the needs of discerning diners.

He says his style goes to the classics, but is uncomplicated. "I want diners to have true food on the plate. It is important to understand diners' needs and enhance a good menu with quality, fresh ingredients".

"I am excited about the challenge and diversity at Kooyong and look forward to delivering food which compliments the wonderful clubhouse and dining areas".

Chris commences at Kooyong on Monday 12 July 2010.

